Scifest National Final 2020: This weekend sees the culmination of months of work for teams from all over the country, as the judges decide on the National winners of Scifest. The Ursuline College were delighted to have two projects selected from the Regional Northwest round this Summer. Niamh Carolan, LÍle Hensey & Ella McDaid won the regional Science Foundation Ireland prize and are now in contention for the overall National Award. Ellen Woodward also won the Boston Scientific prize at the Regional and is competing for the Boston Scientific Grand Prize. As part of this competition, the students submitted a short video into the Outreach Award section and would appreciate all the support you can give. Everyone can vote for their favourite videos on the Scifest site 'Outreach Award', once a day until Friday 27th. We wish them all the best of luck this Saturday.

TikTok Winners

At last, the eagerly awaited winners of our TikTok Competition have been revealed. The students were set the simple task, tell us what you love about UCS. The competition was fierce and every angle and aspect of UCS was filmed, edited and set to music.....even the staff!!!

Great fun was had by all and some priceless moment's immortalised on film.

The winners are:

Jillian Monaghan
Sarah Flavin
Liadán Ruddy
Niamh Meehan (2nd years)

Nicole Maramil
Erin Lang (1st years)

Aoife McLaughlin
Hollie Hannon
Shona Dalton (6th years)

Check out all of the TikToks on our Instagram page. It's well worth it and infectious giggles are guaranteed.
